Recently refurbished, this 1,025-room, business-centric hotel near the La Défense financial district doubles as a surprisingly polished “art” hotel – the über-designed foyer is absolutely stunning for starters. All contemporary chic, the rooms are spacious and well-equipped (the beds have “cutting-edge sleep technology”), and the breakfasts are vast! Plus it’s within walking distance of the Champs-Élysées.

GOTHENBURG, SWEDEN Avalon Hotel

Staying here makes Sweden’s second city feel like the most à la mode town on the planet. We loved the friendly service and large, feng-shui-style rooms (some with standalone baths). The bar and restaurant are popular hangouts, too, and it’s situated bang in the centre of town.

With just six double bedrooms it’s a home from home, and the courtyard breakfast with yoghurts, fresh fruit salad and fresh orange juice is delicious. Don’t miss out.
